LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill:
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House:
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

NOTICE.

NOTICE is hereby given that an application will be made to the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia at its next session, on behalf of the City of Vancouver, for an Act to amend the "Vancouver Incorporation Act, 1921," in the manner following, to provide by such amendments for the following powers, that is to say:—

1. To amend section 3 of the said Act to remove the limitation therein provided which prohibits the city from making or giving any bond, bill, note, or debenture for the payment of a less sum than $100.

2. To amend the said Act to provide for the abolition of the existing wards and that the city shall be one ward.

3. To amend the said Act to provide for reducing the number of Aldermen from twelve to eight and for the election of said Aldermen at large.

4. To amend section 11 of the said Act to provide that candidates for office shall be required to provide a certificate from the City Treasurer that there are no delinquent taxes due to the city by such candidate on the property upon which he qualifies.

5. To amend section 40 of the said Act to provide for entering on the assessment roll the best description available of lands the fee of which is in the Crown, but which have been leased or sold, in cases where the lessee or purchaser has not registered such lease or conveyance.

6. To further amend section 40 of the said Act to provide for the placing on the assessment roll the name of any person having assessable interest in any lands the fee-simple of which is held in the name of His Majesty in right of the Dominion.

7. To amend the said Act to provide that in the preparation of the assessment roll reference shall be had to the records of the Land Registry Office as of the 1st day of November in each year.

8. To amend the said Act to provide that tenants, in order to be placed on the voters' list, must make application each year to the City Clerk.

9. To amend section 46 of the said Act to clarify the provisions of the said sections with respect to the exemption of Crown lands held by His Majesty either in the right of the Province or of the Dominion.

10. To amend the said Act to provide for the assessment of the right or interest of any occupant of Crown lands where such lands are occupied otherwise than in an official capacity, on the basis that such lands shall be taxed at their actual cash value as set out in section 39 of the said Act, as if the occupant were the actual owner thereof during the period of occupancy.

11. To amend section 49 of the said Act to provide that complaints to the Court of Revision may include complaints by persons having been improperly assessed.

12. To amend the said Act to provide that the Court of Revision shall have jurisdiction to determine not only the amount of any assessment, but also all questions as to whether any persons or claimants are or were assessable or are or were legally assessed or exempted from assessment.

13. To amend said Act to clarify and consolidate the information to be set down on the tax roll.

14. To amend the said Act to clarify and consolidate the information to be set down on the statement or notice sent to taxpayers with respect to the taxes levied on lands owned by such taxpayers.

15. To amend section 60, subsection (7), of the said Act to provide that the Collector shall merely enter the date of mailing of the tax statement without the necessity of entering the same on the tax roll opposite the name of the person taxed.

16. To amend section 64 of the said Act to remove the limitation with respect to the number of instalments that may be received for any one year's taxes.

17. To amend the said Act to provide for the apportionment of arrears of taxes or delinquent taxes upon land being subdivided, and for providing that if any plan has been cancelled the amount of taxes in arrears or delinquent against any parcel of land in the plan or subdivision cancelled shall be placed upon the Collector's roll against the parcel of land in which the same is incorporated as the same appears after the cancellation of such plan.

18. To amend the said Act to provide for prohibiting, regulating, and controlling the construction of crossings and driveways in, on, over, or under streets and other public places.

19. To amend the said Act to provide for removing the limitation of $100 placed on licence fees in respect of public utility companies, guarantee and bonding companies, wholesale and retail merchants, and trades and professions.

20. To amend the said Act to provide for the licensing, regulating, limiting, defining, classifying, and prohibiting the construction, installation, and maintenance of gasoline and oil filling stations.

21. To amend the said Act to provide for the Licence Inspector entering upon premises and applying to persons whom he believes to be liable to pay any tax or licence for such information as will enable such Inspector to determine whether or not such person is or is not liable to pay said tax or licence.

22. To amend the said Act to provide for allowing owners of any building pulled down or demolished pursuant to the provisions of the said Act such reduction as the Council may see fit in the amount of taxes levied on such building in the year in which such pulling-down or demolition took place.

23. To amend the said Act to enable the city to purchase and sell gasoline and motor-oil.

24. To amend section 221 of the said Act to clarify the said section with respect to debentures issued under local improvement by-laws in forming part of the debt of the city.

25. To amend the said Act so as to repeal section 320 of the said Act providing for the repair of streets.

26. To amend the said Act to provide for the Lieutenant-Governor in Council conferring upon the Council of the city such further powers with respect to the management and disposal of the assets of the city as the Lieutenant-Governor in Council considers necessary or advisable.

27. To amend section 50 of the said Act to provide that a quorum of the Court of Revision shall be three members of the Council instead of five.

28. To amend subsection (240) of section 163 of the said Act in order to extend the power of the Council with respect to the exemption of churches from taxation.

29. To amend subsection (2) of section 279 of the said Act by striking out at the end thereof the words "and no decision or ruling of the Mayor or presiding officer, while in the chair, shall be overruled except by a vote of two-thirds of the members of the Council present."

30. To amend section 39A of the said Act as enacted by section 3 of the "Vancouver Incorporation Act, 1921, Amendment Act, 1931," to provide for the revision of the rates of taxation imposed by said section 39A.

Dated at Vancouver, B.C., this 14th day of January, 1936.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR PRIVATE BILL.

NOTICE is hereby given that an application will be made to the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia at its next session by The Corporation of the City of Victoria for an Act (to be known as the "Victoria City Act, 1936") providing for the following matters and giving to the said Corporation and the Municipal Council thereof the following powers, namely:—

1. Authorizing the Council to borrow temporarily without the assent of the electors a sum or sums of money not exceeding two hundred and thirty-seven thousand six hundred and thirty-one dollars and thirty-two cents ($237,631.32) for the purpose of redeeming at maturity serial debentures of the Corporation due and payable during the year 1936, pending the sale of debentures first mentioned in the next succeeding paragraph herein, said borrowing to include any sums which may have been borrowed for said purpose prior to the passing of said Act, and providing for the form of obligation and security to be given to the lender.

2. Authorizing the Corporation by by-law to borrow upon debentures without the assent of the electors a sum or sums of money not exceeding two hundred and thirty-seven thousand six hundred and thirty-one dollars and thirty-two cents ($237,631.32), and to apply the proceeds thereof toward the redemption of serial debentures of the Corporation falling due in 1936, or toward the discharge and repayment of temporary loans used for redemption of said serial debentures, or toward the reimbursement of the Corporation for the whole or any part of moneys paid out of the general funds of the Corporation and used during 1936 for redemption of said serial debentures or any of them, or for the repayment of any such temporary loan or loans.

3. Amending section 19 of "Victoria City Act, 1921," as amended, to provide that lands referred to in subsection (a) of said section that shall be acquired by the Corporation by quit-claim or foreclosure proceedings shall be deemed to be lands that have become the property of the Corporation under tax-sale proceedings and may be disposed of as tax-sale lands.

Dated at Victoria, B.C., this 14th day of January, 1936.

To carry on the business of a hydro-electric development, steam, light, and power company in all its branches, and in particular to carry on the business of electricians, mechanical engineering, suppliers of electricity for the purposes of light, heat, motive power, or otherwise, and manufacturers of and dealers in all apparatus and things required for or capable of being used in connection with the generation, distribution, accumulation, and employment of electricity; to construct, lay down, establish, fix, carry out, and maintain all necessary cables, wires, lines, accumulators, lamps, and works, and to generate, accumulate, distribute, and supply electricity and to light mines, cities, towns, streets, docks, markets, theatres, buildings, and places, both public and private, and to construct, lay down, acquire, fix, carry out, and maintain dams, canals, pipelines, conduits, ditches, and any other means now or hereafter known for the conveyance of water, subject always to the provisions of the "Engineering Act" of the Province of British Columbia:

(b.) To apply for, acquire, obtain, hold, purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire water, water records, water licences, water rights and franchises:

(c.) To have, take, exercise, and enjoy all the rights, powers, privileges, and advantages created, provided, and conferred on licensees of water and on power companies by the "Water Act" of the Province of British Columbia or any amendments thereof, or any other Act passed in substitution thereof or as an extension thereof, or by the laws of any country, State, or Province where the Company carries on business:

(d.) To construct, equip, maintain, complete, and operate electrical works and power-houses and works of every nature and description used or necessary for the diversion, utilization, holding, carrying, or conducting of water or power, including works as defined by the said "Water Act" or any such other Act or laws:

(e.) To distribute, sell, supply, or use water or water-power or electrical energy or power for mechanical, industrial, irrigation, power, domestic, or any other purposes for which water or other power may be supplied, sold, or used to persons or companies:

(f.) To purchase, either for cash, shares of the Company, or otherwise howsoever, or otherwise acquire, invest in, hold, deal with, sell, assign, transfer, or otherwise dispose of shares of the capital stock, bonds, debentures, or other securities, or other evidence of indebtedness of or created by any other corporation, and while the holder thereof to exercise all the rights and privileges of ownership, including the rights to vote thereon:

(g.) To promote, organize, develop, or manage, or to assist in the promotion, organization, development, or management of, any corporation, company, syndicate, enterprise, business, or undertaking, and to raise and assist in raising money for, and aid by way of bonus, loan, promise, endorsement, any such corporation, company, syndicate, enterprise, or undertaking:

(h.) To guarantee the contracts and obligations of any person, firm, or corporation in respect of any business entered into between such persons, firms, or corporations and this Company:

(i.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as from time to time may be determined by the directors:

(j.) To sell, lease, exchange, surrender, mortgage, or otherwise deal with the whole of the undertaking and property and rights of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for any shares (whether credited as partly or fully paid up or otherwise), debentures, or securities of any other company, and to divide such part or parts, as may be determined by the Company, of the purchase-moneys, whether in cash, shares, or other equivalent, which may at any time be received by the Company on a sale of or other dealing with the whole or part of the property, estate, and rights of the Company, amongst the members of the Company by way of dividend or bonus in proportion to their shares or to the amount paid up on their shares, or otherwise to deal with the same as the Company may determine:

(k.) To take all necessary and proper steps in any Parliament, or with any foreign, colonial, or other Government, or with any authority (local, municipal, or otherwise) in any part of the world, for enabling the Company to give effect to these presents, or to carry any of the Company's objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purposes, and to oppose the granting of any Act, Bill, or Provincial order or concession or to any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests, and to apply for, procure, or obtain any powers, privileges, rights, or concessions for this Company or for any other company or person:

(l.) To do all or any of the matters aforesaid either in any part of the world as principals or agents, and either in the name of the Company or of any person or company as agent of the Company, and either alone or in concurrence with any person, company, Government, or other body or authority:

(m.) To make gifts and donations to any person, firm, or corporation for any purpose whatsoever, whether such person, firm, or corporation be a member of this Company or not:

(n1.) To install and operate telephone systems or any other public utilities and to do all things necessary and incidental thereto:

(n.) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

The word "company" in this memorandum, when applied otherwise than to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether corporate or unincorporate, and whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere, and the objects specified in each of the paragraphs hereto shall be regarded as independent objects, and accordingly shall be in nowise limited or restricted (except when otherwise expressed in such paragraph by reference to the objects indicated in any other paragraph or the name of the Company), but may be carried out in as full and ample a manner and construed in as wide a sense as if each of the said paragraphs defined the objects of a separate, distinct, and independent company.

(e.) To promote, organize, develop, or manage, or to assist in the promotion, development, or management of, any corporation, company, syndicate, enterprise, or undertaking, and to raise and assist in raising money for, and to aid by way of bonus, loan, compromise, or endorsement, any such company or corporation, and to offer for public subscription any shares, stocks, bonds, debentures, or other securities of any company or corporation, business, or undertaking:

(f.) To buy, sell, exchange, lease, or otherwise deal in real estate and immovable property, and to negotiate for the purchase, sale, exchange, or lease of real estate and immovable property, and generally to carry on the business of real estate agents in all its branches:

(g.) To give any guarantee for the payment of money or the performance of any obligation or undertaking, subject to provisions of the "Insurance Act":

(h.) To lend money on such terms as may seem expedient, and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, in particular to customers and those having dealings with the Company:

(i.) To carry on the business of insurance-brokers and to act as general or special agent of any insurance company:

(j.) To acquire, improve, manage, work, develop, and to exercise all rights in respect of leasing, mortgaging, selling, disposing of, turning to account, and to otherwise dealing with property of all kinds, and in particular land, buildings, concessions, patents, business concerns and undertakings; to make, enter into, deliver, accept, and receive all deeds, conveyances, assurances, transfers, assignments, grants, and contracts necessary to permit and carry on the objects and business of the Company:

(k.) To amalgamate with any company or firm or person or persons carrying on any business included in the objects of this Company, and to sell the business undertaking or any part of the property and estate of the Company as a going concern or otherwise for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for the shares, debentures, or debenture stock or securities of any company; and to purchase the business of any company or firm or person or persons and all or any part of the property or estate thereof as a going concern or otherwise:

(l.) To remunerate any person, director, shareholder, firm, or company rendering services to the Company, whether by cash payment or by allotment to him or them of shares or securities of the Company credited as paid up in full or in part or otherwise:

(m.) To exercise any of the Company's powers either alone or in connection with others, and either as principal or agent or by itself or by sub-contractors, agents, or otherwise, and either in the Province of British Columbia, Dominion of Canada, or elsewhere, as may be determined by the Company:

(n.) To enter into contracts for the allotment of shares of the Company as fully paid up or partially paid up as to the whole or part of the purchase price for any property, goods, chattels, or assets purchased by the Company, and for agencies to be transferred to the Company, or for any service or advantage to the Company, and for any valuable consideration; and to remunerate by the issue of fully or partially paid-up shares or otherwise any person or company for services rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares of the Company's capital, or any debentures or other securities of the Company or in the conduct of its business, or in procuring the Company to be incorporated, or for any valuable consideration, as may from time to time be determined:

(o.) To remunerate any employee of the Company in whole or in part by means of a share or the profits of the Company, or by remuneration varying with the profits earned or dividends declared, or with the output or turnover of the Company, or with the results obtained by any employee of the Company for the benefit of the Company; and such remuneration may be in addition to the ordinary remuneration of such employee, and may be either in cash or by way of allotment of shares fully or partially paid up as the directors shall think fit:

(p.) To insure the life of any director or member of the Company in any insurance company in such manner and as and when the directors shall think fit, and to pay the insurance premiums thereon, and whether such insurance policy shall be payable to the Company and shall be payable to the wife or family of such director or member or otherwise:

(q.) And it is hereby declared that in the interpretation of this memorandum of association the naming of any of the Company's objects as expressed shall not be restricted by reference to any other object or by the juxtaposition of two or more objects, and that in the event of any ambiguity this memorandum of association shall be construed in such a way as to widen and not to restrict the powers of the Company.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, or otherwise acquire any lands and buildings, and any estate or interest in and any rights connected with any such lands and buildings; to develop and turn to account any land acquired by or in which the Company is interested, and in particular by laying out and preparing the same for building purposes, constructing, altering, pulling down, decorating, maintaining, furnishing, fitting up, and improving buildings, and by planting, paving, draining, farming, cultivating, letting on building lease or building agreement, and by advancing money to and entering into contracts and arrangements of all kinds with builders, tenants, and others; to construct, maintain, improve, develop, work, control, and manage any waterworks, gasworks, reservoirs, roads, electric power, heat, and light supply works, telephone-works, hotels, clubs, restaurants, baths, places of worship, places of amusement, pleasure-grounds, parks, gardens, reading-rooms, stores, shops, dairies, and other works and conveniences which the Company may think, directly or indirectly, conducive to these objects, and to contribute or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, maintenance, development, working, control, and management thereof; to carry on all or any of the following businesses, namely: Builders and contractors, decorators, merchants, and dealers in stone, sand, lime, bricks, timber, hardware, and other building requisites, brick, and tile, and terra-cotta makers, jobmasters, carriers, licensed victuallers, and house agents; to lend money either with or without security and generally to such persons and upon such terms and conditions as the Company may think fit, and in particular to persons undertaking to build on or improve any property in which the Company is interested, and to tenants, builders, and contractors:

(b.) To purchase for investment or resale and to traffic in land and house and other property of any tenure and any interest therein, and to create, sell, and deal in freehold and leasehold ground-rents, and to make advances upon the security of land or house or other property or any interest therein, and generally to deal in, traffic by way of sale, lease, exchange, or otherwise with land and house property and any other property, whether real or personal:

(c.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise land, buildings, and hereditaments of any tenure or description, and any estate or interest therein, and any rights over or connected with land so situate, and to turn the same to account as may seem expedient, and in particular by preparing buildings, building-sites, and by constructing, reconstructing, altering, improving, decorating, furnishing, and maintaining office, flats, houses, factories, warehouses, shops, wharves, buildings, works, and conveniences of all kinds, and by consolidating or connecting or subdividing properties, and by leasing and disposing of the same:

(d.) To manage land, buildings, and other property situate as aforesaid, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to collect rents and income, and to supply to tenants and occupiers, and others, refreshments, attendance, messengers, light, waiting-rooms, reading-rooms, meeting-rooms, lavatories, laundry conveniences, electric conveniences, stables, and other advantages:

(e.) To purchase or acquire property of any and every kind whatsoever, and to pay for the same by the issuance and delivery to the seller of shares, bonds, debentures, or debenture stock of the Company, and for such purposes to issue shares, debentures, or debenture stock:

(f.) To carry on any business as brokers, financiers, and as agents for guarantors, securities, and loan companies, fire, life, accident, and marine insurance companies, and agents for any other branch of the insurance business (subject to the laws and regulations in force in the Province of British Columbia respecting insurance), and to undertake, carry on, and execute all kinds of financial operations, and to carry on the business of agents or attorneys for any person, firm, or corporation engaged in any branch of financial, industrial, or commercial business, upon such terms as to remuneration as may be agreed; provided any such powers do not conflict with the "Bank Act" or the "Trust Companies Act" or "Insurance Act" of British Columbia:

(g.) To carry on a general construction business, including the business of architects and engineers in all their branches, subject to the provisions and conditions of the "Architects Act," R.S.B.C. 1924, and amending Acts, and subject to the "Engineering Act," R.S.B.C. 1924, and amending Acts:

(h.) To erect and construct houses, buildings, or works of every description on any land of the Company, or upon any other lands or hereditaments, and to pull down, rebuild, enlarge, alter, and improve existing houses, buildings, or works thereon; to convert and appropriate any such land into and for roads, streets, squares, gardens, and pleasure-grounds and other conveniences, and generally to deal with and improve the property of the Company:

(i.) To sell, lease, let, mortgage, or otherwise dispose of the lands, houses, buildings, hereditaments, as principals or agents.

The objects of the Company as altered are:—

"(a.) To carry on a general financial and brokerage business in all its branches and in any part of the world, and in particular, but not so as to limit the generality of the foregoing, to carry out any transactions or operations whatsoever which may be lawfully undertaken and carried out by capitalists, brokers, merchants, underwriters, financiers, or concessionaires, and to purchase, sell, or otherwise deal in or with stocks, bonds, grain futures, debentures, or other evidence of indebtedness of or created by any other corporation, and as principal or agent and on commission or otherwise:

"(b.) To underwrite, subscribe for, and acquire by exchange, purchase, or otherwise, and hold, either as principal or agent or absolutely as owner, or by way of collateral security or otherwise, and to sell, offer for public subscription, exchange, transfer, assign, or otherwise dispose of or deal in the bonds, debentures, mortgages, or other evidences of indebtedness, stock, shares, or other securities of any Government, governmental agency, taxing body, commission, or municipal or school corporation, or of any banking, public utility, commercial, industrial, or other company or corporation, individual, or association, and while the owner thereof to exercise all the rights and privileges of ownership, including all voting rights, if any, with respect thereto:

"(c.) To carry on the business of insurance-brokers, and to act as insurance agents for automobile, fire, burglary, life, marine, accident, guaranty, and indemnity insurance and all other kinds of insurance, and to enter into any and all contracts of insurance permitted by law:

"(d.) To represent as insurance agents and brokers any and all corporations, companies, firms, or individuals engaged in any branch of such insurance business, and to accept or pay any commissions or other remuneration for services rendered:

"(e.) To carry on the business of commission merchants, manufacturers, general traders, mercantile, financial, investment, mortgage, real estate, insurance, and general and special agents and brokers and dealers in all classes and kinds of goods, wares, merchandise, chattels and effects of every kind and description whatsoever, and to do all things necessary for the attaining, completion, and disposition of the aforesaid objects:

"(f.) To act as agent or attorney in the acquisition, management, sale, assignment, transfer, encumbrance, conveyance, or other disposition of any real or personal property, the investment and collection of moneys, rents, loans, interests, dividends, hypothecs, bonds, notes, and other securities:

"(g.) To guarantee the contracts and obligations of any person, firm, or corporation in respect of any business entered into between such persons, firms, or corporations and the Company:

"(h.) To buy, sell, exchange, lease, or otherwise deal in and to manage real estate and immovable property, and to negotiate for the purchase, sale, exchange, or lease of real estate and immovable property, and generally to carry on the business of real-estate agents in all its branches:

"(i.) To promote, organize, develop, or manage, or to assist in the promotion, organization, development, or management of, any corporation, company, syndicate, enterprise, business, or undertaking, and to raise and assist in raising money for, and aid by way of bonus, loan, promise, endorsement, any such corporation, company, syndicate, enterprise, or undertaking, and to offer for public subscription any shares, stocks, bonds, debentures, or other securities of any corporation, company, syndicate, enterprise, business, or undertaking:

"(j.) To take all necessary and proper steps in any Parliament or with any authority (local, municipal, or otherwise) in any part of the world for enabling the Company to give effect to these presents, or to carry any of the Company's objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purposes, and to oppose the granting of any Act, Bill, or Provincial order or concession or any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests, and to apply for, procure, or obtain any powers, privileges, rights, or concessions for this Company or for any other company or person:

"(k.) To do all or any of the matters aforesaid either in any part of the world as principals or agents, and either in the name of the Company or of any person or company as agent of the Company, and either alone or in concurrence with any person, company, Government, or other body or authority:

"(l.) To make gifts and donations to any person, firm, or corporation for any purpose whatsoever, whether such person, firm, or corporation be a member of this Company or not:

"(m.) To acquire and take over certain real estate in the City of Vancouver, in the Province of British Columbia, now owned by Mrs. Mina Oliver, assuming all charges and liabilities which may exist against the said estate, and with a view thereto to enter into the agreement referred to in clause 2 of the Company's articles of association, and to carry the same into effect with or without modification:

"(n.) To acquire tracts of land with the object of subdividing the same into lots, and selling such lots when so subdivided, and to exercise all and every power and authority granted by section 64 of the 'Companies Act'; to declare and pay dividends out of moneys being the net proceeds of the sale of the Company's lands and assets:

"(o.) Subject to paragraph (aa) hereof, to carry on business as capitalists, financiers, concessionaires, and merchants, and to undertake and execute all kinds of financial and commercial trading and other operations, and to carry on any other business (except that of assurance) which may seem to be capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of these objects, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of, or facilitate the realization of, or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

"(p.) To purchase either outright or by agreement for sale, take on lease or in exchange, or otherwise acquire lands, leases, buildings, timber, mines, water rights, rights or concessions in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, and any estate or interest therein and any rights connected therewith:

"(q.) Subject to paragraph (aa) hereof, to develop and turn to account any land or other property acquired by or in which the Company is interested, and in particular by laying out and preparing the same for building purposes, pulling down, constructing, altering, decorating, maintaining, furnishing, fitting up, and improving buildings, and by planting, paving, draining, farming, cultivating, letting on building lease or building agreement, and by advancing money to and entering into contracts and arrangements of all kinds with builders, tenants, and others:

"(r.) Subject to paragraph (aa) hereof, to lend money with or without security and generally to such persons and upon such terms and conditions as the Company may think fit, and in particular to persons undertaking to improve any of the Company's property or assets:

"(s.) To borrow or raise or secure payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by mortgages and by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

"(t.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which the Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and, subject to paragraph (aa) hereof, to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, or reissue the same with or without guarantee or otherwise deal with the same:

"(u.) To invest and deal with the money of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

"(v.) To remunerate any person or corporation for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any shares in the Company's capital or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of the Company or the conduct of its business:

"(w.) To sell and dispose of the whole or any part of the undertaking of the Company for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, and to promote any other company for any purpose which may seem, either directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

"(x.) Upon the sale of the whole or any part of the undertaking of the Company, to divide the proceeds thereof among the shareholders in specie:

"(y.) To carry on business and do any of the things set out herein in any Province or part of the Dominion of Canada or in any foreign country, and to procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any Province or part of the Dominion of Canada and in any foreign country or place:

"(z.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

"(aa.) Provided that nothing in the foregoing objects contained shall authorize the Company to exercise any of the powers of a trust company as defined by the 'Trust Companies Regulation Act':

"(bb.) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects."

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this thirtieth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five.
